FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2769 –SB 2860

February 16, 2010

SUMMARY OF BILL: Creates new requirement where results of a radar, laser, or similar device used to measure the speed of a motor vehicle are not admissible as proof of speed in judicial or administrative proceedings unless the law enforcement officer operating the device has been certified by a recognized certification organization as qualified to operate the device.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumption:

- Law enforcement officers can be certified by their local law enforcement agency. Any increase in local expenditures is estimated to be not significant.
